

What are the Specific Distribution Requirements?

Distribution requirements depend on degree program and college. The following chart provides a brief outline; for further information, see the general education booklet.

Distribution Area	BA students in the Colleges of Liberal Arts, Science & Math, Education & Human Development, and Public & Community Service	BS students in the Colleges of Liberal Arts, Science & Math	Students in the College of Management	Students in the College of Nursing & Health Sciences
Arts (AR) Humanities (HU)	3 courses, including one Arts course and one Humanities course	1 Arts course and 1 Humanities course	2 courses (Arts and/or Humanities)	2 courses (Arts and/or Humanities)
Mathematics/Technology(MT) Natural Science (NS)	3 courses, with at least one Natural Science course Any mathematics course must be at the level of Math 125 or higher	4 courses, with at least one Natural Science course Any mathematics course must be at the level of Calculus II or higher	2 courses (Math and/or Natural Science) Any mathematics course must be above the level of Math 134	2 courses in Natural Science
Social and Behavioral Science (SB)	3 courses	2 courses	2 courses	1 course
World Culture/World Languages (WC/WL)	2 courses in World Cultures or World Languages (or both)	1 World Culture course or 1 World Language course at the 102 level or higher	1 course (World Culture or World Language)	2 courses (World Culture or World Language)
Elementary Language Proficiency	Follow this link for an explanation of how to meet this requirement	not required	not required	not required